NEW YORK (N. L.), 2; BROOKLYN, 0. Two runs in the first inning for New York, then eight and a half innings of aching void: such was the game yesterday at the Polo Grounds. The Brooklyns got nothing but ciphers. The batting was of the texture of tissue paper. Poole held the New Yorks to five hits, and Taylor held the Brooklyns to three hits. Taylor pitched in form that was ultra fine. The mute has shown abiltiy to keep pace with the fastest of the pitchers this year, and yesterday he was at concert Twice he struck the Brooklyn side out, the same three men each time, Poole Sheckard and Lumley, and as fast as they

The New Yorks outbatted the Brooklyns slightly and outfielded them considerably. There was some very spry fielding behind Taylor. Spryest of the spry was Gilbert, who accepted nine out of ten chances, covered a great deal of ground and had a libera share of difficult chances among his apportion ment of assists. For a man out of his posi-tion Dobbs deserves credit for his good work at short. The Brooklyn team was handi-capped by a makeshift infield. Jacklitech, a catcher, at second base, was a weak spot. The New Yorks bunted a good deal. The bunting and sacrificing worked all right generally, but men were left on bases frequently after the first inning because the men on whom it devolved to hit the ball ent and send in runners fell down on the bingie business. Midget McCormick was kept busy dancing in on bunts and took care of all but one. That one tied him up, but altogether he was very handy at gobbling transfer. altogether he was very handy at gobbling up these tantalizing taps.

After Sheckard had fanned in the first inning the next three Brooklyns hit the ball on the nose. Lumley hit safely to right. Dillon hit as Lumley started to steal. Dahlen ran over to take the throw from the catcher and was able to make a good stop of Dillon's hard hit back of second base, on which he threw Dillon out. Jacklitsch, too, landed seldly on the ball, but Gilbert's activity cut him down.

solidy on the ball, but Gilbert's activity out him down.

Bresnahan drew four balls in New Yorks' half of the first, Browne bunted safely, and Devin moved both men along with a sacrifice. Dobbs threw McGann out at first, on which play Bresnahan came through. Mertes hit folsekiltsch, who made a bad throw to first, and on that misplay Browne tallied.

Brooklyn's best chance to score was in the fifth inning. McCormick opened it with a two-bagger to right. That was the extent of his trip. Devlin and Gilbert whisked the grounders of Poole, Sheckard and Lumley scross to first with business like precision and quickness.

arounders of Poole, Sheckard and Lumley across to first with business like precision and quickness.

With one out in the fourth inning Gessler muffed Gilbert's easy fly. Gilbert stole second, but Gessler clung to flies furnished by Bowerman and Taylor. The fifth inning promised additional runs for New York. Fresnahan walked and Brownse bunted Poole and Dillon went after the bunt. Poole got the ball, but as first base was left completely uncovered Brown was safe. Devlin secrificed, the inning thus far being similar to the first. McOann bunted, but McCormick grabbed up the ball and threw Bresnahan out to Ritter. A base on balls to Mertes peopled the pillows. Dahlen's fly to Sheckard nullified all the hard work of the inning. Men were on bases in each of the next three innings. The score:

PITTSBURG, 6; ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 5.

PITTSBURG, June 17.—Pat Flaherty of Carnegie, bought lately from the American League, pitched bis first game in Pittsburg to-day. Flaherty was saved from defeat by phenomenal fielding on the part of the champions, who pulled off three lightning double plays, one in the ninth with the bases full. In that, inging he gave two bases on balls and hit a batsman. In the fourth inning Pitcher MoFarland was hit on the head with an inshoot, rendering him unconscious for two hours. The score:

Fully 15,000 persons saw the running of the coney Island Handicap, six furlongs, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon. A splendid field of sprinters went to the post. with E. R. Thomas's Lady Amelia and Stal wart ruling the choice at 11 to 5. Mattie Corbett's Hurst Park, with 135 pounds, was second in favor at 9 to 2, with S. S. Brown's Broomstick at sixes and A. Featherstone's ngold backed down to sevens. T. L. Watt's an added starter, and with Kunz, a stable boy, on her back she went begging at 30 to 1. Lady Amelia broke in front, but Lady Uncas followed her, closing to the middle of the stretch, where Mr. Thomas's filly began to stick, who was shut in during the early stages and also tried to run out at the head of the stretch, closed with a great burst of speed as soon as Burns got clear sailing Lady Uncas won by a head, but Broom-Ingold, who was away slowly, also made up a lot of ground in the run home and was third, half a lengh behind and a neck in front of Divination. Then came Hurst Park and Lady Amelia close together. The race was run in 1:13 4-5. E. R. Thomas's colors were carried to vice tory in the Daisy Stakes, for two-year-olds at five furlongs on turf, in a rattling finish in which St. Bellane, coupled with Niblick at 4 to 1, got through on the rail at the head of the stretch and in a flerce drive beat the odds-on favorite, Sydney Paget's Diamond, a head on the post. Diamond made the pace from the start, but began to stop when Odom called on him. He finished two lengths in front of Niblick, who had half a length over R. T. Wilson, Jr. 's, Gamara. James McLaughlin's Pasadena whirled when the gate went up and was left. The time

Newton Bennington's Right Royal, 7 to 10 favorite, had no trouble in winning the first race, for two-year-olds at five furlongs, Futurity course. John E. Madden's Wild Irishman, a half-brother to Yankee, was second choice and he started off in the lead only to stop to nothing. O'Neill let Right Royal down at the elbow in the track, and he raced to the front, winning by two lengths in 1:02. J. W. Johnston's Phoebus, by Peep o'Day-Iroquoise, a 40 to 1 shot, was second, a length before David Gideon's Golden Sunrise, 6 to 1, with Sydney Paget's Torchello a neck back.

S. S. Brown's Audience, 4 to 5 favorite. won the handicap at a mile and a furlong, but only after a terrific drive all through the stretch. The Sir Dixon filly was last on the far turn, but H. Phillip went to the whin at that point and she gradually overhauled her company. Colonsay, who made the pace for three-quarters of a mile, gave way to Brigand and the latter kept in front right up to the end of the route, where Audience got up in time to win by a couple of inches, in 1:54 1-5. Brigand was 2 lengths better RECORD BY FOXHUNTER. Big Crowd to See Running of Country Club Grand Annual Steeplechase.

BOSTON, June 17 .-- A holiday crowd 20,000 persons saw Foxhunter win the Country Club's Grand Annual Steeplechase over the Clyde Park course to-day, which was the final day of the meeting. The winner went over the course in 4:57 2-5, which is a new record. This event was easily the best race of the day. From the start Foxhunter and White Crest raced abreast over all the jumps to the turn of the wire, where Foxhunter spurted and won by two lengths. Land of Clover, the favorite, was never in the running. The betting was 5 to 1 against Foxhunter.

First Race—Hack race; purse $250; six furlongs—F. A. Clark's b. g. Edgecombe. 150 (Mr. Clark), won: Mr. Chetland's b. g. Gwynne. 150 (T. Wilson), second. Charles S. Bird, Jr.'s b. m. Beulah, 150 (E. E. R. THOMAS STILL THINKING OF SENDING HERMIS TO ST. LOUIS.

Redfern Gets $2,000 for Riding the Winner of the Suburban-Senator McCarren Said to Have Won $80,000 on Hyland -Hildebrand Signs With H. B. Duryes.

E. R. Thomas, because of the great victory of Hermis in the Suburban Handicap, received congratulations all yesterday afternoon at the Sheepshead Bay track. Mr. Thomas is thinking seriously of sending the $60,000 horse to St. Louis to take part in the World's Fair Handicap next Saturday He said yesterday that if he finally decided to send the horse he would leave here on Monday morning in a specially prepared private car, and that he would only travel during the day time, spending Monday night in Buffale and then proceeding on his way Tuesday. After another rest that night in some Western city. Hermis would finish the trip on Wednesday and prepare for the race on Thursday and Friday. Mr. Thomas will probably make known his decision to-day. He was de-lighted with the way Redfern handled Hermis in Thursday's big race. He met the jockey in the paddock yesterday before the races and handed him two crisp $1,000 bills.
"This is for you, Arthur!" said the young millionaire turfman. "You did nobly, and I want you to accept this little gift!" Redfern expressed his thanks and handed the money to his father. Mr. Thomas enjoyed the victory of his colt St. Bellane in the Daisy Stakes. Incidentally his racing partner, Alex. Shields, wagered $20,000 a place on St. Bellane and Niblick, who were coupled, and got even money. The partners did not bet very heavily on Lady Amelia and Stalwart in the Coney Island Handicap, however. Lady Amelia was started n this race without the consent of her trainer, Willie Shields, who said that the dead track was not suited to her. Stalwart was an added starter, and Mr. Thomas notified Travers, who is under contract to him, that he would have to ride the colt. Travers had previously engaged to ride E. E. Smathers's, Witchcraft in this race, and Trainer Frank Taylor tried to hold the boy to his agree-ment. The matter was taken before the stewards, who decided that Mr. Thomas was exercising his rights, and Travers, accordingly, got into Stalwart's saddle, Taylor thereupon securing E. Walsh to ride Witch-

M. L. Hayman, who was betting for Senator P. H. McCarren, the ring sharps insisted, placed $10,000 on Little Em in the fifth race. Nothing daunted, he came back with $5,000 more to bet on Hyland in the last race, Frank Lanterman taking one bet of $1,000 from him at 5 to 1. Hayman, as a result of Hyland's success, took about $30,000 from the books. John A. Drake was not at the track, but his colored betting commissioner had a good bet on Hyland, after placing $5,000 on Audience in the handicap. If Broomstick had won the Coney Island Drake would have won close to $40,000, as Charles Head Smith got down nearly $7,000 for the Chicago turf-man at 6 to 1. Burns said afterward that Broomstick could surely have won if he had not tried to run out at the head of the stretch. George Wheelock wagered $5,000 on Right Royal, who was an attraction for nearly all of the big bettors. Fred Mossop, a well known Toronto speculator, had $1,000 on the Thomas entry in the Daisy Stakes, getting 5 to 1. Pittsburg Phil also played St. Bellane straight, but dropped a heavy bet on Sais in the last event. John J. Ryan, it turns out, is having a bunch of the hardest kind of hard luck. Beginning with the loss of $15.00 on Reliable on Thursday, the "get-rich-quick" inan has been unable to cash a bet since He scratched Reliable from the Coney Island because of the crushing impost.

Joe Yeager left for Chicago yesterday on the Twentieth Century Limited. Re will arrive there this morning. The plunger has a big wager on Highball to win the American Derby this afternoon and wants to see the Ben Strome colt run. Albert Simens and Charley Fox went on the same train for the same purpose. Shaw also left for the Windy City yesterday to ride English Lad.

H. B. Duryea has secured second call on the services of Jockey Ernest Hildebrand. The papers were signed yesterday, and Hildebrand rode his first race in the green and white jacket on Mercury in the second race Whether this means that Mr. Duryea is dis-satisfied with the way Shaw has been riding him or not remains to be seen, but on that the owner of Irish Lad wanted to have Hildebrand ride him in the Suburban instead of Shaw. Hildebrand is regarded by many turfmen as the best lightweight in America. He has been having wonderful success since Joe Yeager brought him here from California in the spring and unless all signs fail, it will not be at all surprising if he handles nearly all of Mr. Duryea's horses in future races. Shaw was blamed by many for not winning the Brooklyn Handicap with Irish Lad, but he rode the Candlemas colt in the Suburban strictly in accordance with instructions. Hildebrand said after he had signed his new contract that he will receive almost as much money as Redfern and H. Phillips are getting from E. R. Thomas.

Redfern and Cochran had a serious run in at the post in the first race. No sooner had the barrier been raised than Cochran atruck Redfern a blow on the head with his whip. Redfern, at the conclusion of the race, went before the stewards and filed a complaint. Cochran said that it was all an accident, but the stewards thought differently and sus-pended him for one week.

charley Dwyer has decided not to send Africander to St. Louis. The Star Ruby colt will receive a good rest with the idea of getting him fit for the Brighton Handicap. Hurst Park and Ingold got into a kicking match at the post and both landed heavy rib roasters, but neither was cut. Pasadena who is a bull head and sour tempered, after refusing to break in the Daisy Stakes was placed on the schooling list.

James McLiffrey, "The Mush a Merry Man," had $500 on Phoebus a place in the first race, getting 8 to 1. He gave a wine party, beginning right after the race and lasting until an early hour this morning.

Bookmaker Schopps framed up a big killng with W. H. Snyder's Tyron in the second race. The colt opened at 100 to 1, but Schopps went the rounds betting on him until the odds had dropped to fifteens. At the start Tyron was practically left, but he ran a wonder-ful race and was not far out of the money at the end. With an even break there is no telling what might have happened.

The Coney Island was the first of the June three times, in 1897, 1900 and 1901. The other winners were Armitage. Domino, also owned by the Keenes: Hanwell, Maceo, Bendoran, Halasso and Lady Uncas, who was victorious last year in 1:17, with 100 pounds. Voter established the best record for the race and the track at six furlongs in 1901, when he ran in 1:12 2-5.
The winners of the Daisy Stakes since 189 were Eclipse. Charade, Lovelace, Cataract, Harry Reed, Floretta IV., George Kessier, Mehallah, Kingdon, Neda, Lady of the Valley Leonora Loring, Roxboro, and Nameoki. The best time for the race and the track is 1:00 2-5, made by Floretta IV., in 1895. It is said that the Coney Island Jockey Club will build an entirely new grand stand of steel before next season which will have a seating capacity of 20,000. The present structure, which will accommodate half that number, has been found entirely inadequate in view of the great crowds that saw the Futur-ity last year and the Suburban on Thursday.

Billiard Challenge From Young Hoppe. The following challenge has been received:

GOLFING AT TWO TOURNEYS.

MRS. MANICE AND MRS. PATER-SON IN METROPOLITAN FINAL.

Mrs. A. J. Morgan Wine the Handicap -Close Match Play Finishes at Tuxede -Low Scoring by Kellogs and Partridge-Professionals to Meet at Nassau.

Exceptionally close finishes marked the natch play for the President's cup at the Tuxedo Club tournament yesterday, no less than three of the contests in the first round being carried to the nineteenth hole, while L. L. Kellog, Jr., only beat Walter Stern on the home green. This was the closest scoring match of the day, the winner recording a 76 and Stern 79. Partridge, in putting out Carnegie, also made a 76. To keep up the spirited order of play, two of the four matches of the second round also went to the nineteenth green. Morten, who defeated Archie Graham, could not have surprised the North Jersey and Tuxedo clans more if he had overturned one of the Ramapo hills.

The heroes of the nineteen hole matches

The heroes of the nineteen hole matches of the morning were Morten, Tiffany, and Garry Adams. The last named was the only one of the trio to last out the afternoon and this morning he will play Partridge, while to round up the semi-finalists for the Governor's cup will be Jaffray, Seton, Morse and Hunt, playing in the order named. The four to survive for the consolation cup, the gift of William Kent, are Carnegie, Graham, Kane and Janin, who will have a hot fight this morning, when the start will also be made in the thirty-six hole handicap for the Arden cup, the gift of E. H. Harriman.

In the final round this morning, at eighteen holes, for the champlonship of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association at the Apawamis club, the contestants will be Mrs. E. A. Manice of the Englewood Golf Club. Mrs. Manice is defending the title that she has held for two years and it is Mrs. Paterson's first time in the final, for last year she was put out in the third round by Mrs. C. T. Stout. Mrs. Paterson is conceded to be the beat woman player at her home club and at Pinehurst, where she spends the winter, and a good match is expected.

Mrs. Manice bad Miss Willis as opponent yesterday morning and going out it was a vigorous contest. Mrs. Manice made the better start and was 2 up at the fourth hole, when Miss Willis wiped out the lead and was 1 up by taking the next three holes. She had a 3 on the first time the par has been made on the hole were 35 to 37. Mrs. Paterson's ford for the fifteen holes week. The eight was a half in 4. Miss Willis making and the members of the Cornell navy arrived to-day, and this morning all the crews and the members of the Cornell navy arrived to-day, and this morning all the crews were on the water. "The 'varsity crew is a minute slower than last year's crew at this time and when you see Cornell on the water working at this stage of the proceedings, you might know that something is wrong," said the coach.

"We shall have to work hard all the time we are here, and the only thing I can say is that I hope they will improve during the next ten days.

After the trials of the crews to-night, Coach Courtney said it was the best work they have yet done. He regards his four as a first class crew and believes the freshman crew to be a good combination. The shifting of Coffin from stroke to No. 2, is regarded as sufficient evidence that everything is not as Courtney would have it in the senior shell. Nutting is doing good work as stroke of the crew.

The Pennsylvania and Columbia crews were on the water this morning and again this evening. The conditions were ideal and Coach Goodwin had his blue and white crews out for a long row. It was the first real amooth water they have had and the oarsmen sent the shell through the water at a splendid clip. The Pennsylvania oarsmen went over the course this morning and again this afternoon. Coach Ward seems satisfied that his crews will be heard from on June 3 HORSES AND CARRIAGES.
